Dear Rod Tamayo:

The applicant states that these records were previously determined by the CEC's executive director to be confidential for six years or two code cycles (Docket No. 25-BSTD-01, TNs 264688, 266384, 266021, 266334, 266292, 264688, 264609, and 266334). The applicant asserts, under penalty of perjury, that the documents submitted contain information substantially similar to previously submitted information that was granted confidential designation, and all facts and circumstances relevant to the confidentiality of the information remain unchanged.

California Code of Regulations title 20, section 2505(a)(4) provides:

The applicant has met the requirements for confidential designation of the above information as a repeated application. Confidentiality is granted six years or two code cycles, under the same terms as those in the initial letters granting confidentiality.
