As part of the December 19, 2025, Business Meeting, the Energy Commission will consider adopting revisions to the Renewables Portfolio Standard Eligibility Guidebook (RPS Guidebook), 10th Edition.

Background

Under the RPS program, the Energy Commission is responsible for certifying eligible renewable energy facilities that may be procured by retail sellers of electricity and local publicly owned electric utilities (POUs) to satisfy their RPS requirements, and for verifying the eligibility of renewable energy procured for RPS compliance by retail sellers and POUs.

The RPS Guidebook, currently in its Ninth Edition, describes the eligibility requirements and process for certifying facilities as RPS-eligible and the rules and process for verifying renewable energy certificates (RECs) for compliance with California's RPS program. The RPS Guidebook is revised periodically to reflect statutory, market, and regulatory developments, as appropriate.

On May 21, 2025, the Energy Commission conducted a public workshop to present potential revisions of the RPS Guidebook and accept public comments. Following that meeting, a draft of the RPS Guidebook Tenth Edition was released on September 17, 2025. Following its release, the Energy Commission held another public workshop on October 6, 2025, to receive public comments on the draft RPS Guidebook Tenth Edition. The Energy Commission also received written comments following both workshops. A revised draft of the RPS Guidebook Tenth Edition will be presented at the Energy Commission's December 19th business meeting for consideration of adoption. The document will be posted in docket 21-RPS-02 ahead of the meeting.
