Automatic Approval: 20 CCR § 2505 (a)(5) Docket No: 25-IEPR-03

Dear Daniel S. Hashimi:

The California Energy Commission (CEC) received Pacific Gas and Electric Company's (applicant) application for confidential designation, docketed December 12, 2025 (TN 267896), for the following:

- CEC Data Request
  - Project status (CEC-defined group # for applications, active/inactive for inquiries)
  - Total capacity requested
  - Capacity ramp schedule (only for applications)
  - Capacity ramp schedule uncertainty flag (+last year of energization) (only for certain applications)
  - Name of CCA serving the area
  - Whether the project is expected to be served by direct access
  - CEC-defined forecast zone approximation

California Code of Regulations title 20, section 2505(a)(5) provides:

Automatic Designation. Information submitted by a private third party shall be designated confidential without an application for confidentiality if the requirements of subsections (a)(5)(A) and (B) of this Section are met. If the requirements of subsection (a)(5)(A) and (B) are not met, the Executive Director shall inform the private third party that the record will not be deemed confidential. Except as provided in Section 2507 of this Article, the record for which confidentiality was requested shall not be disclosed for fourteen days to allow the requirements of subsection (a)(5)(A) and (B) to be met or to allow the filing of an application pursuant to subsection (a)(1) of this section.

The applicant has met the requirements for confidential designation of the above information. The confidential information is properly labeled as confidential, satisfying the requirement of Section 2505(a)(5)(A). Additionally, the information has not been previously released and falls within the category of subsection 2505(a)(50(B)(1)(a) as commercial customer sector information that could allow a third party to uniquely identify the specific commercial customer. Confidentiality is granted indefinitely, under the same terms as those typically granted for this information.

Be advised that under California Code of Regulations, title 20, section 2506, one may petition to inspect or copy records that the CEC has designated as confidential. A decision on a petition to inspect or copy confidential records is issued by the CEC's chief counsel. Under California Code of Regulations, title 20, section 2507, the executive director may disclose records, or release records previously designated as confidential, in certain circumstances. The procedures for acting on a petition and criteria for disclosing or releasing records previously designated as confidential are set forth in California Code of Regulations, title 20, sections 2506-2508.
