Public Summary — Exhibit A-02 and Exhibit A-01

2025 Consumer Transparency Forms

Golden State Registry (GSR) has submitted the following 2025 Code Cycle consumer-facing documents:

- Exhibit A-02 — Consumer Information Form
- Exhibit A-01 — Field Verification & Diagnostic Testing (FV&DT) Service Site Report Template

These documents are required pursuant to Title 24, Part 1 §10-103.3(b)1A(vi) and (vii) and are intended to improve transparency and consumer awareness within the Energy Code Compliance (ECC) Program.

---

Consumer Information Form (CIF)

The Consumer Information Form:

- Explains the role of the ECC-Rater
- Explains the role of the ECC-Rater Company
- Explains the role of the ECC-Provider
- Describes required verification testing

- Outlines complaint and oversight procedures
- Provides a required acknowledgment section

The form is delivered to the building or project owner prior to testing, as required by the 2025 Code Cycle.

FV&DT Service Site Report

The Field Verification & Diagnostic Testing (FV&DT) Service Site Report:

- Identifies the ECC-Rater and ECC-Rater Company
- Lists registered compliance documents (CF1R, CF2R, CF3R)
- Summarizes tests performed (e.g., duct leakage, airflow, refrigerant charge)
- Documents pass/fail results
- Provides required pricing transparency
- Includes required certification statements

The report is delivered after completion of field verification and diagnostic testing.

The confidential versions submitted to the Commission include GSR's structured implementation templates and registry integration formatting used to generate these required documents within the registry system.

This public summary confirms that GSR has implemented the required 2025 Code Cycle consumer transparency documents consistent with Title 24.
