Repeated Application for Confidential Designation
Docket No. 26-PSDP-01

Dear Lilly McKenna:

The California Energy Commission (CEC) has received Shell Energy North America (US), L.P.'s (applicant) repeated application for confidential designation, docketed June 1, 2026 (TN 270400) for the 2025 Power Source Disclosure Annual Report of Shell Energy North America (US), L.P. The applicant is requesting confidentiality for procurement, retired, and retail sales data as shown below:

- Annual Data:
 - Lines 3-26 (Columns Q and X – Resource and GHG Allocations)
 - Lines 28-498 (Columns H-J; O; Q; Y; and AE – Gross MWhs procured, Specified Resales, Net Procurement, Total GHGs, Net Procurement, Losses, and Annual PCL GHGs)
- 2025 PCL Data Worksheet:
 - Line 3 (Columns B and H; – Retail Sales and Loss-Adjusted Load)
- Unbundled REC Worksheet:
 - Lines 5; 12-112 (Columns B; and F – Total Allocations and Total Retired Unbundled RECs)
- ACS Procurement Calculator:
 - Line 5 (Column B – Net MWh Procured)
 - Lines 13-17 (Column C – Resource-Specific Procurement from BPA)

A prior version of these records was previously determined by the CEC's executive director to be confidential in a letter dated June 30, 2025 (Docket 25-PSDP-01, TN 264519). The information is substantially similar to previously submitted information that was granted confidential designation, and all facts and circumstances relevant to the confidentiality of the information remain unchanged.

California Code of Regulations title 20, section 2505(a)(4) provides:

If an applicant is seeking a confidential designation for information that is substantially similar to information that was previously deemed confidential by the Commission pursuant to section 2508, or for which an application for confidential designation was granted by the Executive Director pursuant to subdivision (a)(3)(A) of this section, the new application need contain only a certification, executed under penalty of perjury, stating that the information submitted is substantially similar to the previously submitted information and that all the facts and circumstances relevant to confidentiality remain unchanged. An application meeting these criteria will be approved.

The applicant has met the requirements for confidential designation of the above information as a repeated application. Confidentiality is granted through December 31, 2026, consistent with the applicant's request and previous timelines provided by the CEC.

Be advised that under California Code of Regulations, title 20, section 2506, one may petition to inspect or copy records that the CEC has designated as confidential. A decision on a petition to inspect or copy confidential records is issued by the CEC's chief counsel. Under California Code of Regulations, title 20, section 2507, the executive director may disclose records, or release records previously designated as confidential, in certain circumstances. The procedures for acting on a petition and criteria for disclosing or releasing records previously designated as confidential are set forth in California Code of Regulations, title 20, sections 2506-2508.
