Commissioners re: Docket 24-OIR-03,

I work for a family owned CA distributor and this would absolutely create a nightmare scenario for us on a daily basis. We struggle to get basic information from our contractors and this would only add to their and our frustrations. We should not be held responsible for gathering information that the governments should be getting themselves if they deem it necessary. If the municipalities stream lined their side of the permitting process contractors would be more inclined and willing to pull permits. Jeff Amato
