

Question regarding Energy Management Systems

We currently have 2 EMS systems and would like to combine into one system. We currently have 21 of 25 schools on 2 different systems and for economy of scale, training, and working with one system may not have direct energy savings but would be an overall cost savings to our district. Our systems are 9 years old and I would consider this part of a retro-commissioning of our EMS.