FFIERCE's Prehearing Conference Statement

FFIERCE (Fighting For Informed Environmentally Responsible Clean Energy) files the following prehearing conference statement in response to the Commission's August 25, 2017 Order.

1. Subject areas that require adjudication and precise nature of the dispute based on the results of the California Independent System Operator's August 16, 2017 Report and Testimony Submitted In Response to that Report.

Alternatives: Whether the LCR need can be met through preferred resource alternatives or a combination of preferred resources and a smaller peaker.

Project Description, Benefits, Objectives, and Need: Whether the Puente project is necessary or whether it will provide any of the benefits set forth in the Applicant's and Staff's testimony.

2. FFIERCE does not intend to sponsor witnesses or testimony at the September hearings.

3. Subject areas/scope of questions to other parties' witnesses:

Jim Caldwell, on Alternatives, including regarding the CAISO August 16 report, his testimony on that report, and the market, cost, pricing, and availability of preferred resources. Time estimate: 10 minutes

Brian Theaker, regarding his testimony on the CAISO August 16 Report. Time estimate: 10 minutes

David Vidaver regarding his testimony on the CAISO's August 16 Report. Time estimate: 10 minutes

Matt Owens, Stem, regarding his testimony on the CAISO August 16 report and the market, cost, pricing, and availability of preferred resources. Time estimate: 5 minutes

Andrew Schwartz, Tesla, regarding his testimony on the CAISO report and the market, cost, pricing, and availability of preferred resources. Time estimate: 5 minutes

Alex Morris or other representative of CESA regarding its testimony on the CAISO August 16 report and the market, cost, pricing, and availability of preferred resources. Time estimate: 5 minutes

Mark Hesters, Staff Representative—if called by other parties. Time estimate: 3 minutes

Doug Karpa regarding the Clean Coalition's testimony on the CAISO August 16 report and the market, cost, pricing, and availability of preferred resources. Time estimate: 5 minutes

CAISO Representative regarding the CAISO Report. Time estimate: 12 minutes

4. FFIERCE does not intend to offer new evidence at the September 2017 hearings.

The prehearing conference statement is timely submitted for the Committee hearings scheduled to be held on September 14 and 15, 2017 in Oxnard, California.

Dated: September 7, 2017

Respectfully submitted,
