RE: Sacred Lands File Search and Native American Contacts list for the “Carlsbad Energy Center Project (Remove Above-ground Storage Tanks, Modifications and Installation of Piping Equipment and Remediation of Oily Sands; Shut-Down and De-Commissioning of EPS Units including RE-Design, Cooling of Generation Stations; all in coordination with San Diego Gas & Electric Company);” located in the City of Carlsbad; San Diego County, California

Dear Dr. Gates:

A record search of the NAHC Sacred Lands Inventory fDID indicate the presence of multiple Native American traditional sites/places of the Project site(s) or 'areas of Potential effect' (APEs), submitted to this office. The NAHC especially recommends that your agency consult with Carni Mojado (San Luis Rey Cultural Department), Carmen Lucas and Clint Linton who are shown on the attached list of tribal contacts. Note also that the absence of archaeological features, Native American cultural resources does not preclude their existence at the subsurface level.

In the 1985 Appellate Court decision (170 Cal App 3rd 604), the Court held that the NAHC has jurisdiction and special expertise, as a state agency, over affected Native American resources impacted by proposed projects, including archaeological places of religious significance to Native Americans, and to Native American burial sites.

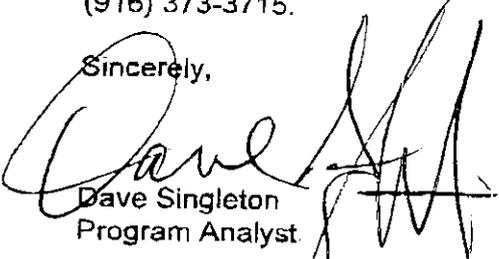

When the project becomes public, please inform the Native American contacts as to the nature of the project (e.g. residential, renewable energy, infrastructure or other appropriate type). Attached is a list of Native American tribes, Native American individuals or organizations that may have knowledge of cultural resources in or near the proposed project area (APE). As part of the consultation process, the NAHC recommends that local government and project developers contact the tribal governments and Native American individuals on the list in order to determine if the proposed action might impact any cultural places or sacred sites. If a response from those listed on the attachment is not received in two weeks of notification, the NAHC recommends that a follow-up telephone call be made to ensure the project information has been received.

California Government Code Sections 65040.12(e) defines 'environmental justice' to provide "fair treatment of people...with respect to the development, adoption, implementation, and enforcement of environmental laws, regulations and policies." Also, Executive Order B-10-11 requires that state agencies "consult with Native American tribes, their elected officials and other representatives of tribal governments in order to provide meaningful input into...the development of legislation, regulations, rules and policies on matter that may affect tribal communities."

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at (916) 373-3715.

Sincerely,

Dave Singleton
Program Analyst

PS: I will be leaving the NAHC July 25th after more than eight years working for cultural preservation and protection. I have enjoyed the collaboration with you in the interest of building community relationships with Native American tribes through the environmental planning process. My replacement is Gayle Totton (gayle.totton@nahc.ca.gov). Send her a note if you wish. Thanks for the past productive eight years plus.
