Background

The California Energy Commission begins its 2017 pre-rulemaking for the 2019 Building Energy Efficiency Standards (Standards) update with a staff workshop on residential building standards and Zero Net Energy (ZNE). At this time the Energy Commission's proposals for addressing California's residential ZNE goals in the 2019 Standards will be discussed. The Energy Design Rating (EDR) concept and how it will be used as a metric for efficiency-only targets and the target EDR that includes efficiency and photovoltaic (PV) generation, and the proposed model PV ordinance for local jurisdictions will also be discussed.

Public Comment

Oral comments. Staff will accept oral comments during the workshop. Comments may be limited to three minutes per speaker. Any comments may become part of the public record in this proceeding.

Written comments. The comment period for this workshop ends at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 5, 2017. Written comments will be accepted at the workshop; however, the Energy Commission may not have time to review them before the conclusion of the meeting. For additional information, see Standing Order re: Proceedings and Confidentiality Procedural Requirements for Filing, Service, and Docketing Documents with the Energy Commission, available at: www.energy.ca.gov/commission/chief\_counsel/docket.html.

Additionally, written comments may be posted to the Energy Commission's website for the proceeding. Please note that your written and oral comments, attachments, and associated contact information (e.g., your address, phone, email, etc.) become part of the viewable public record. This information may become available via Google, Yahoo, and any other search engines.
