SUBJECT: Status of New High School Construction in Grand Terrace, CA

COMMENTS:

The following email exchange is regarding the new Colton Joint Unified School District's new high school in Grand Terrace, on Taylor and Main Streets, directly across from the proposed Highgrove Project site:

From: "GRUNDMAN ALICE" ALICE_GRUNDMAN@ciusd.net 7/6/2009 7:30 AM

Construction has started and the school is on schedule to open September 2011. Finally.

Hi Alice,

With little action due to the Air District dilemma and a recent request to suspend the AES Highgrove Project for a 6 month period, I thought it would be wise to check on the status of the District's High School construction status. Can you provide me with any news regarding the current plans? When last we talked construction was to commence in January of 2009.

Thank You In Advance!

Bob Worl
