Dear Ms. Gefter - I hesitate to continue e-mail exchanges about the upcoming EEC hearings, but a portion of the letter from Ms. Schulkind raises a concern on staff's part about what is being filed on Friday. It is our understanding that all of the parties' testimony is being filed on Friday. The only direct testimony that the witnesses will offer at the hearings is a summary of the written, pre-filed testimony; no testimony that was not pre-filed will be allowed. This is what staff believes the Committee's intent is (as expressed at the Prehearing Conference), is consistent with past Commission practice, and avoids surprise and the need to allow parties additional time to respond to new information.

In order to minimize e-mail traffic, please let staff and the other parties know only if this understanding is incorrect.

Thank you.
