Subject: Web availability of legislative history materials (Ridgecrest Solar Power Project, Docket #09-AFC-9)

Attachments: Ridgecrest Mailing POS 8.15.11.legislative history.pdf

To the Ridgecrest Power Plant proof of service list:

CEC staff has assembled legislative history public documents related to three legislative bills that have potential relevance to the legislative intent questions that the Siting Committee has requested briefing on (see Appendix to Order No. 11-0824-8 dated August 26, 2011, available at http://www.energy.ca.gov/sitingcases/solar_millennium_ridgecrest/notices/2011-08-26_Appendix_to_Order_11-0824-8.pdf). These include documents from CEC staff files that specifically relate to three bills: SB 1575, the original Warren-Alquist Act legislation enacted in 1974; SB 928, legislation in 1988 that changed several renewable energy provisions in the Act; and AB 446, which removed a number of sections, including some of the "grandfather" provisions, from the Act in 1994.

The legislative history documents are in the form of .pdf files, roughly grouped by document category and bill number. They can be accessed at http://www.energy.ca.gov/reports/Warren-Alquist_Act/history.html, or by clicking on legislative history links that have been established on the California Energy Commission's page for the Warren-Alquist Act or the Ridgecrest Solar Power Project's documents page.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The documents posted on the web are limited to public documents related to the three bills that have been located in staff files, or obtained by staff from other sources. In providing these documents, CEC staff makes no guarantee that they are the entire legislative histories for the three bills or that they contain all legislative documents of potential relevance to the issues raised in the Ridgecrest proceedings. To the contrary, additional documents relating to the three bills (as well as other legislation amending the Warren-Alquist Act) are known to exist at the California State Archives, and additional documents might also be found at other libraries or locations. For information about legislative files at the State Archives, see <http://www.sos.ca.gov/archives/> or call 916-653-7715.

Please also note that some of these archival scanned files are very large and may not open properly in a web browser. An alternative is to right-click your mouse on the link (option-mouse-click on a Macintosh) to save the file to your desktop or other folder. You can then open the file outside of your web browser.

I am attaching the service list. Copies of this message will be mailed to those who do not prefer electronic service.
