California Energy Commision,

We own a single family home a few miles away from the proposed site of the power plant, a home delightfully nestled in between the Mission Trails and Lake Murray recreational parks in which we are planning on starting a family. The concept of builing a fossil fuel burning plant in this day and age is ludicrous, let alone in land designated for and used as a recreational park. There must be numerous alternate locations further east & south which won't have the same impact on established neighborhoods and parks.

Please, find a different site farther from population or stop the project completely.

Best Regards,

Dennis & Lindsay Bollman
