Applicant Response to Intervenor Beltran Request for Schedule Change

Applicant opposes the motion by Mr. Beltran for an alternate schedule for this proceeding. Given the schedule commitments of the Commissioners, Staff and the Hearing Officer, we believe any schedule change at this late date should only be made under extraordinary circumstances.

Applicant understands the time pressures that this project inflicts upon all parties. However, had Mr. Beltran participated in the Committee conference held on June 21, 2010 he would have a better understanding and appreciation for the schedule and schedule constraints in this proceeding. He also would have had known about the slippage in the staff's submittal and an opportunity to express his concerns.

It should also be pointed out that Mr. Beltran has presented testimony in this proceeding and has conducted cross-examination of witnesses. Presumably, Mr. Beltran only needs to review changes between staff's draft testimony and their final testimony in four discrete areas. We believe this can be accomplished in a relatively short amount of time.
