Calpine Corporation)
KING CITY LM 6000 Project)	ORDER APPROVING a Petition
)	to Change Ownership and Plant
_____)	Name

Calpine Corporation, the owner/operator of the Calpine King City LM 6000 Project has filed a petition to transfer the ownership and obligations imposed by the conditions of certification for the Calpine King City LM 6000 Project from Calpine Corporation to Gilroy Energy Center, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Calpine Corporation. Calpine has also requested that the plant name of Calpine King City LM 6000 Project, as it appears on the Energy Commission Decision of May 2, 2001, be changed to King City Energy Center (KCEC).

The Energy Commission approves Calpine Corporation's proposed amendment for an ownership transfer and name change in accordance with Title 20, Section 1769 (a) (3) of the California Code of Regulations.

COMMISSION FINDINGS

Based on staff's analysis, the Energy Commission concludes that the proposed changes will not result in any significant impact to public health and safety, or the environment. The Energy Commission finds that:

1. The change will be beneficial to Calpine Corporation in that it will allow Calpine to obtain financing for general project construction activities.
2. The project modification was a post-certification business decision. Financial problems in the industry and current lender requirements were not known at the time of certification.
3. There will be no new or additional unmitigated significant environmental impacts associated with the proposed changes. The new owner will comply with all conditions of certification.
4. The facility will remain in compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances, regulations, and standards.

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

The California Energy Commission hereby adopts the following changes to the King City LM 6000 Project Decision:

Change in Ownership:

The new owner of the King City LM 6000 Project will be Gilroy Energy Center, LLC.

Change in Project Name:

The project name is now King City Energy Center (KCEC).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
