Petitions to Intervene to Become a Formal Party

The Energy Commission's Decision on the Rice Solar Energy Project will be based on the official evidentiary record developed at the Evidentiary Hearing. Only formal parties may present evidence and cross-examine witnesses at the Evidentiary Hearing. Anyone with an appropriate interest in this project may file a Petition to Intervene and become a formal party. At the Evidentiary Hearing, a formal party may offer testimony and documentary evidence, receive documents filed by other parties, and cross-examine witnesses. However, a formal party must also comply with Committee orders, procedures, and filing requirements, and is subject to discovery and having its own witnesses cross-examined by other parties.

The initial deadline to file a Petition to Intervene in this case was Monday, September 13, 2010. Petitions filed after that date may be granted only upon a showing of good cause.
