I am pleased to report that the Applicant and CURE had a very productive meet and confer on Friday, November 13, 2009.

I believe that we have reached accord on the issues of most concern to CURE. We are prepared to provide answers today; however, based on the productive meet and confer, the Applicant and CURE have agreed to a short extension of time to focus our responses to address CURE's concerns. Applicant anticipates filing those revised responses by the end of the week and will endeavor to accelerate that filing.

The District thanks CURE for its professional approach and demeanor, and we look forward to continuing our productive relationship.

Thank You.
