Re: Solar Millennium Blythe Solar Power Project (California Energy Commission Docket No.09-AFC-6)

Dear Mr. Heaston:

On February 2, 2010, the District published notice of preliminary determinations of compliance for the Solar Millennium Blythe Solar Power Project, jointly proposed by Solar Millennium LLC and Chevron Energy LLC. However, in a letter dated January 26, 2010, Solar Millennium LLC informed the District that Chevron had withdrawn from the project and requested that the CEC issue one license to Blythe Solar 1 LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Solar Millennium. Due to the changed project and the change of ownership, the PDOC's analysis must be revised and recirculated for public comment.

We request that the District immediately withdraw the PDOCs dated January 28, 2010 and notify the public accordingly. The January 28, 2010 preliminary determinations have been rendered moot.

The public and multiple agencies are working expeditiously to review numerous projects that are currently seeking funding under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. Releasing a PDOC for public comment when the PDOC is no longer applicable to the project is an inefficient use of the agencies' and public's limited resources.
