

DOCKETED

Docket Number:	16-AFC-01
Project Title:	Stanton Energy Reliability Center
TN #:	224171
Document Title:	Clean Coalition - Wall Street Journal Article Summary and Link
Description:	This document was cited in Note 35 of the Clean Coalition's Opening Testimony (TN#: 224025).
Filer:	Miles Maurino
Organization:	Clean Coalition
Submitter Role:	Intervenor
Submission Date:	7/13/2018 1:51:03 PM
Docketed Date:	7/13/2018

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Energy Resources
Conservation and Development Commission

In the Matter of:  Application for Certification for the STANTON ENERGY RELIABILITY CENTER	DOCKET NO. 16-AFC-01  Intervenor Clean Coalition
--	--

The Clean Coalition's Opening Testimony cited to a March 19, 2018 Wall Street Journal article, Natural Gas Under Assault in Some States After Brief Reign at the Top, that included a copyright which disallowed the article from being published on the California Energy Commission (CEC) website.

The Clean Coalition cited the article's comment from CEC Commissioner Robert Weisenmiller who stated, "You're not going to get anywhere if you are just adding more and more gas," He then said, "At some point soon we'll be permitting the last gas plant in California." No other commentary was included or referenced from the article.

The article can be found here:

<https://www.wsj.com/articles/after-a-brief-reign-at-the-top-natural-gas-is-under-assault-1521378008>

/s/ Miles Maurino
Miles Maurino
Staff Attorney
Clean Coalition

July 13, 2018