- Closing remarks

Background

Assembly Bill 118 (Núñez, Chapter 750, Statutes of 2007) created the Alternative and Renewable Fuel and Vehicle Technology Program (now known as the Clean Transportation Program). The statute authorizes the California Energy Commission to develop and deploy alternative and renewable fuels and advanced transportation technologies to help attain the state's climate change policies. Assembly Bill 8 (Perea, Chapter 401, Statutes of 2013) re-authorizes the Clean Transportation Program through January 1, 2024, and specifies that the Energy Commission allocate up to $20 million per year (or up to 20 percent of each fiscal year's funds) in funding for hydrogen station development until at least 100 stations are operational. The Energy Commission has an annual Clean Transportation Program budget of approximately $100 million and provides financial and technical support for projects that:

- Reduce criteria and toxic air pollutant emissions from vehicles.
- Reduce the use of and dependence on petroleum transportation fuels, and increase the use of alternative and renewable fuels and advanced vehicle technologies.
- Produce sustainable alternative and renewable low-carbon fuels in California.
- Expand alternative fueling infrastructure and fueling stations available to the public, existing fleets, public transit, and transportation corridors.
- Improve the efficiency, performance, and market viability of alternative light-, medium-, and heavy-duty vehicle technologies.
- Retrofit medium- and heavy-duty on-road fleet and nonroad freight vehicles to alternative technologies or fuel use.
- Offer incentives for the purchase of alternative fuel vehicles.

- Establish workforce training programs and conduct public outreach on the benefits of alternative transportation fuels and vehicle technologies.
- Support local and regional planning for zero-emission vehicle and fueling infrastructure deployment.

Statute requires the Energy Commission to annually update an investment plan that communicates the Commission's strategic vision; determines the funding priorities and opportunities for the upcoming fiscal year; and provides an analytical rationale for proposed expenditures. The investment plan update also highlights and explains the rationale for any year-to-year changes to the Clean Transportation Program strategy and funding priorities. Projects funded by the Commission under the Clean Transportation Program must be consistent with the priorities established in the plan.

The Revised Lead Commissioner Report version of the 2019-2020 Investment Plan Update was posted July 26, 2019. This report and all documents relating to the 2019-2020 Investment Plan Update proceeding (18-ALT-01) are available online at <https://www.energy.ca.gov/altfuels/2018-ALT-01/documents/>.

Statute also requires the Energy Commission to convene and consult with an Advisory Committee to help develop each investment plan update. The Advisory Committee is currently comprised of representatives of fuel and vehicle technology consortia; labor organizations; environmental organizations; community-based justice and public health organizations; recreational boaters; consumer advocates; academic institutions; workforce training groups; and private industry. The Advisory Committee also includes representatives from various state agencies: the California Natural Resources Agency; the California State Transportation Agency; the Labor and Workforce Development Agency; and the California Environmental Protection Agency.

The Disadvantaged Communities Advisory Group is established pursuant to SB 350 (De León, Chapter 547, Statutes of 2015) to review and provide advice on Energy Commission and Public Utilities Commission clean energy and pollution reduction programs, and determine whether those proposed programs will be effective and useful in disadvantaged communities.

Public Comment

Oral comments: Staff will accept oral comments during the workshop. Comments may be limited three minutes per speaker and one speaker per organization. Any comments may become part of the public record for this proceeding.

Written comments: Written comments must be submitted to the Docket Unit by 5:00 p.m. on August 9, 2019. Written comments will also be accepted at the workshop; however, the Energy Commission may not have time to review them before the conclusion of the meeting.

Remote Attendance

WebEx is the Energy Commission's online meeting service. When attending remotely, presentations will appear on your computer/laptop/mobile device screen and audio may be heard via the device or telephone. Please be aware that the WebEx meeting may be recorded. WebEx technical support is available at 1-866-229-3239.

Via Computer: Go to <https://energy.webex.com/ec>. If this event is listed, click "Join." If not, click the "Home" tab on the top left of your screen and enter Event Number 925 541 392. When prompted, enter your name and email address. No password is needed.

The "Join Conference" menu offers a choice of audio connections:

1. To call into the meeting, select "I will call in" and follow the on-screen directions.
2. International attendees, select "Global call-in number."
3. To have WebEx call you, enter your phone number and click "Call Me." This step will not work if your number has an extension.
4. For Internet audio: If you have a broadband connection, a headset, or a computer microphone and speakers, you may use VoIP (Internet audio). Go to the audio menu and click "Use Computer Headset," then "Call Using Computer."

Via Telephone: (no visual presentation): Call 1-866-469-3239 (toll free in the U.S. and Canada) and when prompted, enter the meeting number above. International callers may select a number from <https://energy.webex.com/energy/globalcallin.php>.

Via Mobile Device: Download the application from www.webex.com/products/web-conferencing/mobile.html.

Muting: We greatly appreciate your cooperation in reducing background noise on the audio connection by muting your line when you are not speaking. Mute your line rather than placing your phone on hold. Using WebEx, right click on your name in the panelists or attendees list and select "Mute." If you are using a telephone connection, press "*6" once to mute and again to unmute.
