- Paper copies of the Initial Statement of Reasons, Express Terms, and Notice of Proposed Action are available for review
- Public comment on proposed rulemaking
- This public hearing is being recorded by a court reporter and on WebEx
- All statements today become part of the public record

Summary

- The ECAA program provides low-interest and no-interest loans to local governments and public schools to fund energy efficiency projects.
- The Energy Commission is proposing to repeal the outdated ECAA regulations.
- The repeal of the regulations (Article 6, in Chapter 4, Division 2 of Title 20) will not cancel the program, nor will it change the way it is administered.
- The ECAA regulations are outdated and have not been revised since 1983.

Next Steps

- Staff will consider oral and written comments from today and written comments submitted during the 45-day public comment period.
- Staff will seek adoption at a future Energy Commission Business Meeting.

Public Comments

- Public comments from in-person participants will be taken first
  - Please come to microphone
  - Give business card to court reporter for name and affiliation accuracy
  - A copy of your comments in written form is appreciated but not required

Public Comments

- Public comments from Webex
  - Use raise-hand feature
  - Staff will call upon you
  - Type a comment into chat-box and it will be read into record
- Phone only participants
  - All lines will be un-muted

Please state your name and affiliation for court reporter

Thank You!
