Background

Statutory provisions in Public Resources Code Section 25402.1(h)(2) and regulatory provisions in Sections 10-106 and 10-110 of Title 24, Part 1 (2019) (California Administrative Code) establish a process that allows local governmental agencies to adopt and enforce energy efficiency standards for newly constructed buildings, additions, alterations, and repairs to existing buildings, provided the CEC finds that the local standards will require buildings to be designed to consume less energy than permitted by the Energy Code.

Local governmental agencies are required to submit these local standards to the CEC prior to enforcement. Per Section 10-106, this application must include the following:

1. The proposed energy standards
2. The local governmental agency's energy-savings and cost-effectiveness findings, and supporting analyses
3. A statement or finding by the local governmental agency that the local energy standards will require buildings to be designed to consume no more energy than permitted by the Energy Code
4. Any findings, determinations, declarations, or reports, including any negative declaration or environmental impact report, required pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act

For the local jurisdiction to enforce the standards, the CEC must then find, based on the submitted application materials, that the local standards will result in a reduction in energy consumption compared to the statewide Energy Code and that the local jurisdiction has filed the basis of its cost-effectiveness determination with the CEC.
