About the Lithium Valley Commission

In September 2020, Governor Gavin Newsom signed Assembly Bill 1657 (Garcia), directing the CEC to convene a 14-member Blue-Ribbon Commission on Lithium Extraction in California, referred to as the Lithium Valley Commission. The Lithium Valley Commission is directed to review, investigate and analyze opportunities and benefits for lithium recovery and use in California and provide a final report on these topics by October 2022. Additional information on the Lithium Valley Commission is available at www.energy.ca.gov/LithiumValleyCommission.
