ESR-21-01 Docket system errors and omissions

Dear Energy Commission Commissioners,

What was a easy task has become annoying.

Staff are approving and publishing comments under my name that are not what was submitted.

The many of my recent docket filings have been truncated without warning, rending my submitted comments incomplete and confusing.

Staff appear to not be aware of "Comment Text" character limit, and "Add Comment" web page does not warn of any limit as it does with "Comment Title".

In the published comment, "Comment Text" is not delineated with "Additional submitted attachment is included below." from attached files, changing the meaning of the comment.

Some documents referenced in docket logs are not available, staff have not responded to requests for missing documents.

Please see that the docket staff ensure what was submitted is what is published in full.

thanks,

Steve Uhler
