California Coastal Commission Offshore Wind Consistency Determination Resources

Informational communication to share California Coastal Commission webpage with offshore wind consistency determination resources and information. The consistency determination is expected to be on the Coastal Commission's April 2022 hearing agenda. Comments on the consistency determination should be directed to osw@coastal.ca.gov.

BOEM recently submitted its consistency determination for the Humboldt wind energy area lease sale to the California Coastal Commission. The consistency determination is part of the Coastal Zone Management Act review process. To provide resources to the public, the Coastal Commission has provided a webpage with relevant documents, including the consistency determination: <https://www.coastal.ca.gov/upcoming-projects/offshore-wind/>. Additional resources will be added to this webpage as the Coastal Commission's review continues. The consistency determination is expected to be on the April 2022 hearing agenda. Comments on the consistency determination should be directed to osw@coastal.ca.gov.
