Lithium Valle Interviews Michael McKibben

Michael McKibben is one of the leading geologists in the Salton Sea region. I consider him an impartial source for anything that has to do with geothermal energy, lithium deposits and current studies in the Salton Sea.

This week, I asked him a few questions that have been bugging me about a number of things related to this topic. <https://lithiumvalle.substack.com/p/issue-6-what-journalists-get-wrong>
