Proposed changes to T24

The change of having the homeowner hire the hers rater will kill my business That Ive been working for the last 5/6 years. Let alone it will have all kinds of problems in my opinion

I donâ€™t think it fair to do that to the rater like my self who take pride in their work. I love what I do and enjoy finding leaks and seeing them fixed. I see contractors getting better every year. And I think it will continue to get better as long as we can work with the contractors Continuously
