BUSMTG-2023-01 Enforcing recordkeeping rules, business meeting agendas and minutes, rulemaking petition TN249027

Dear CEC Commissioners,

Chief counsels come, chief counsels go, the same for public advisers.

Business meeting records are available on the CEC's website, then they are not.

This is a problem the CEC is yet to solve. There are holes in the current method that leave the public in the dark.

The CEC has record keeping regulations. These regulations do not include the method the chief counsel is now using.

The chief counsel says there are no laws requiring what I am asking for. The rulemaking process will correct this problem that leads to a waste of taxpayer money that is far more than a rulemaking proceeding would cost.

Please grant the petition to ensure the CEC's history is not lost.

BUSMTG-2023-01 Enforcing recordkeeping rules, business meeting agendas and minutes, rulemaking petition TN249027

Dear CEC Commissioners,

Chief counsels come, chief counsels go, the same for public advisers.

Business meeting records are available on the CEC's website, then they are not.

This is a problem the CEC is yet to solve. There are holes in the current method that leave the public in the dark.

I am petitioning to amend record keeping rules so everyone will understand where to find records and ensure there are rules to follow and enforce.

I have requested agendas and minutes be filed in the docket for proceedings many times.

The CEC was established in 1975, a lot of history, history that may have been lost.

Some staff may say, we always know where the CEC records are. Yet sometimes when asked for a record, it is not provided in a timely manner, sometimes it is never provided. Web links go dead, the public is told to request each record because they are not available on the website.

This is a waste of taxpayer money.

Please review the below lists.

Where are the rest of the agendas and business meeting minutes?

The CEC has record keeping regulations. These regulations do not include the method the chief counsel is now using.

The chief counsel says there are no laws requiring what I am asking for. The rulemaking process will correct this problem that leads to a waste of taxpayer money that is far more than a rulemaking proceeding would cost.

Please grant the petition to ensure the CEC's history is not lost.
