Re: Repeated Application for Confidential Designation of NEMIC's
ATTCP Application Amendment Third Submittal

Dear Mr. Bohan:

We write on behalf of the National Energy Management Institute Committee ("NEMIC") to submit this repeated application for confidential designation of certain specified attachments to NEMIC's Amendment to its Application to become a Mechanical Acceptance Test Technician Certification Provider ("ATTCP") under California Code of Regulations, Title 24, Part 1, § 10-103.2(f) ("Amendment Process").

On November 26, 2013, the Executive Director of the California Energy Commission granted confidential status for the NEMIC ATTCP Application (TN #72379). The Commission has granted confidential designation for amended portions of NEMIC's ATTCP Application on April 25, 2014, June 15, 2016, July 12, 2018, April 1, 2019, October 12, 2022, June 12, 2023, August 1, 2023, and September 11, 2023. NEMIC requests confidential designation for the following documents:

- NEMIC ATTCP Application Amendment 2023 (Nov 16, 2023) Redline
- NEMIC ATTCP Application Amendment 2023 (Nov 16, 2023) Clean

This third submittal is intended to replace NEMIC's amendments previously filed on April 6, 2023, and August 28, 2023, both of which were granted confidential designation.¹

These documents are being submitted as confidential because the information contained in the documents is proprietary and contains industry secrets for training, business methods, and procedures. I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the information contained in these documents is substantially similar to the previously submitted information and all facts and circumstances relevant for confidentiality remain unchanged.

If there are any concerns over which portions of the document are to be treated as confidential, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Andrew J. Graf
