See Attendance Instructions.

The California Energy Commission (CEC) will host a first meeting of the Independent Consumer Fuels Advisory Committee (ICFAC) to discuss roles and responsibilities and to receive briefings on relevant topics from staff. This is a hybrid meeting consistent with Senate Bill (SB) X1-2 (Skinner, Stats. 2023, 1st Ex. Sess. 2023, ch. 1), with both a publicly accessible physical location and public access online or by phone through Zoom™.

The public can participate in the meeting consistent with the attendance instructions below. The CEC aims to begin promptly at the start time posted and the end time is an estimate based on the proposed agenda. The meeting may end sooner or later than the posted end time.

Agenda

This meeting will discuss and review the roles and responsibilities of the ICFAC, work done to date under SB X1-2, and new work to be done under Assembly Bill (AB) X2-1 (Hart, Stats. 2024, 2nd Ex. Sess, ch. 1).

There will be an opportunity to provide public comment orally at the meeting. Written comments will be accepted for the period identified below following the meeting.

A detailed schedule will be posted prior to the meeting in Docket No. 23-ICFAC-01 at <https://efiling.energy.ca.gov/Lists/DocketLog.aspx?docketnumber=23-ICFAC-01>.

Background

SB X1-2, the California Gas Price Gouging and Transparency Law, was passed to protect Californians from experiencing price gouging at the pump by oil companies. The law was signed by Governor Gavin Newsom in March 2023 and took effect June 2023.

This came after consumers experienced some of the highest gasoline prices ever recorded in California in Fall 2022. The law helps the state understand and respond to gasoline price spikes. The law includes transparency and oversight measures to increase accountability of the petroleum industry. It also provides additional resources to support long-term planning efforts.

SB X1-2 established the ICFAC to provide expert advice and insight to the CEC and Division of Petroleum Market Oversight on petroleum fuels market instabilities in California and other issues. The ICFAC consists of six members appointed by the Governor, one member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and one member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules. The duties of the ICFAC are determined by the CEC, as delegated to the Executive Director.

AB X2-1 further enhanced the CEC's oversight of the transportation fuels market. Among other changes, AB X2-1 authorized the CEC to adopt regulations with criteria for the commencement of refinery maintenance, including establishing minimum inventory requirements for refiners.
