Stop the Sacred Land Grab

The Nation of the USA has already taken too much land from the nations of the original inhabitants. Unleashed greed has caused enough ruin and suffering. There are no worthy compensations comparable to what land remains. There is no excuse to continue breaking treaties and promises that we're guaranteed.

Go find other land. Our original natives need to be protected from the incessant encroaching of their lands, their culture, and their sovereignty.

Truthfully and in hope,

Carole J Andreas
