§1363.2. Definitions: Specific Definitions for Purposes of Reporting Requirements

...[Skipping "1/1/1" through "Major Crude Oil Transporter"]

"Major Petroleum Products Marketer" means a firm that sells or sold 2050,000 barrels or more of petroleum products during any month of the current or preceding calendar year, excluding an individual service stations or truck stops. An electric utility shall not be considered a major petroleum products marketer unless it has sold or otherwise disposed of, other than through its own consumption, 2050,000 barrels or more of petroleum products per month during any four months of the current or preceding calendar year.

...[Skipping "Major Petroleum Products Storer" through "Refinery Fuel Use and Losses During the Month"]

"Refinery inputs" means the raw materials and intermediate materials processed at refineries to produce finished petroleum or renewable fuel products. Refinery inputs include, but are not limited to, crude oil, products of natural gas processing plants, unfinished oils, other hydrocarbons and oxygenates, motor gasoline and aviation gasoline blending components, and finished petroleum products.

...[Skipping "Refinery Storage Facility" through "U.S.C."]

§1366. Requirement to File.

...[Skipping subdivisions (a) through (w)]

(x) Each refiner and major petroleum products marketer, as defined in Section 1363.2, shall file each month projections containing all of the information specified in Appendix B, Sections IX and X, respectively. Projections shall contain the specified information for each of the three months following the reporting month. Refiners' and major petroleum products marketers' projections shall contain all of the information specified in Appendix B, Sections IX and X, respectively.

(xy) Unless otherwise indicated, if a company, by its various activities, satisfies two or more of the definitions in Section 1363.2, it shall file a separate report for each such activity.

 (\underline{yz}) Any company required by this article to submit Petroleum Information Reports, which company contains divisions, departments, or subsidiary companies, shall report on behalf of all such divisions, departments, or subsidiaries, provided that such divisions, departments, or subsidiaries be required to report pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(zaa) All reports required by this section shall be on such form and in such format as the Executive Director may require, except as provided below.

(aabb) Any person required by this article to submit Petroleum Information Reports may in lieu thereof, submit a report made to any other government agency, provided that the requirements of Public Resources Code Section 25354(g) are satisfied, provided that the Executive Director of the CEC approves in writing to the applicant that the alternative submittal of substitute report information is acceptable and provided that such substitute report is expressed in identical units to those required by this article.

(bbcc) Any person or company required by this article to submit Petroleum Information Reports in a specific form designated by the CEC may in lieu thereof, electronically submit the required information in a different format, provided that the Executive Director of the CEC approves in writing to the applicant that the alternative format of submittal is acceptable.
