1. Contact Information (20 CCR 1208.1.)
Applicant Name: Refrigeration Service Engineers Society
Phone Number E-mail: 847-759-4035; lschiavo@rses.org
Proceeding Name: Acceptance Test Technician Certification Provider for Nonesidential Mechanical Acceptance Test Technician and Employer
Docket Number: 13-ATTCP-01
2. Title: 2025 Update Report
Date: March 26, 2025
Description (including number of pages): RSES ATTCP training updates for the 2025 code cycle, including exam updates and a new exam for the new form. 76 pages total.
3. Data to remain confidential is on pgs. 5-76
4. RSES requests the document remain confidential though Dec. 31, 2025.
5. RSES would like the material included in the submission to remain confidential, as it is proprietary information produced by RSES that, if not kept confidential, could impair business.
 - (a) RSES is only one of three ATTCPs producing this type of certification/training for the state of California.
 - (b) If not kept confidential, other ATTCPs might know how we structure our training and use/modify it to create their own and be in direct competition with RSES.
 - (c) At present, the information has no monetary value, however, based on past trainings, we estimate materials to value at around or above $40,000.00.
 - (d) As of the date of this application, there is no chance of acquisition or duplication as it has not been made public. Once it goes public after Dec. 31, 2025, confidentiality is no longer an issue.
6. Data can be disclosed if 75% of the questions/answers are masked.
7. As of the date of this letter, this material has not been disclosed to anyone outside of RSES.

"I certify under penalty of perjury that the information contained in this application for confidential designation is true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge." (20 CCR 2505(a)(1)(G.))
