Fountain Wind Project

As a lifelong resident of California, I resent the fact that you have made this site so difficult to navigate. I spent over 30 minutes typing my input, then your site notified me that I must refer to a project. The site took me to another page where I found and selected the project. The site then returned me to this page and the verbiage I typed was gone. Typical California administrative procedure- You really don't want to hear from the citizens you serve- do you? For the record, I oppose the Fountain Wind Project, for several reasons that I will not take the time to restate.
