Subject: Huntington extension of comment period

Hi Susan,

Thank you for speaking with me and agreeing to determine if the Committee would extend the comment period one the Huntington Beach PMPD until Monday at the start of your business day. the basis for my request is that I see that there have been some cursory responses to my comments by staff and the applicant that were not served to me. I just discovered them on the docket. I would like to reply. It seems appropriate to me that if there are responses to my comments that they would be communicated to me or they are not really responding to my comments. Since the CEC will be closed over the weekend the proceeding would not be delayed by the extension.

Thank you

Rob Simpson
