Additional submitted attachment is included below.

18-MISC-05 Please see requirements of Title 20, 1353 (a) are met.

1353 (a) cites adhering to the reporting requirements identified in Section 1342.

1342 (i) Techniques Required; Replicable Results. All data submitted under this Article shall be:

- (1) gathered, organized, analyzed, and reported using standard, generally-accepted, and documented professional statistical, engineering, data-gathering, and other appropriate techniques;
- (2) presented in sufficient detail to allow replication of the results by the Commission staff and by other experts in the field; and
- (3) accompanied by the following:
 - (A) complete identifications of the sources of all data;
 - (B) complete descriptions of all assumptions used; and
 - (C) complete identifications and descriptions of all methodologies used.

Please make available the above and the "small test dataset" described in TN227436 so I may replicate any results.

thanks,

p.s.

What is being done to correct the two subdivisions labeled (2) in Title 20, section 1353 (c)?

I believe you will find it should not be corrected as a Scrivener's error (citation issue).

Any correction should be adopted by legislative body of the Energy Commission that adopted the errant version.
