18-HYD-04 - follow up questions

Dear Energy Commission Staff,

We would like to find out if a GFO application is transferable to another entity after the applicant has submitted an application to the Energy Commission and the application due date has passed. There is a possibility that Company A submits an application and, afterward, Company A forms a new joint venture C with Company B. In this case, our question is: Is the application transferrable from Company A to Joint Venture C?

Similarly, we would like to ask you if a GFO award is transferable from Company A to Joint Venture C after Company A has received an GFO notification from the Commission and before the Commission reimburses Company A.

Thank you.
