Docket No. 19-IEPR-03, California Department of Water Resources' Demand Forecast

Please find attached the California Department of Water Resources' (DWR) demand forecast data. Pursuant to title 20, California Code of Regulations section 2505(b) and Government Code section 6254(e), DWR designates historic and forecasting data in forms 1.3, 1.5, and 1.6a, including subparts, confidential and exempt from public disclosure. The data designated as confidential has been highlighted within the IEPR filing. DWR is submitting this confidential data to the California Energy Commission (CEC) pursuant to Government Code section 6254.5(e) with the expectation that it be retained as confidential information until such time as DWR provides written authorization to CEC to release it.

DWR does authorize CEC to aggregate the confidential data with other regional or statewide data for use in the 2019 Integrated Energy Policy Report, provided that any confidential data utilized by CEC shall not be made discretely identifiable or attributable to DWR.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at (916) 574-1362, or by e-mail at Ghassan.ALQaser@water.ca.gov.
