Notice of December 4, 2019 Webinar for the San Joaquin Valley Incentive Project

Additional submitted attachment is included below.

CALeVIP Coming to the San Joaquin Valley

Starting on December 11, 2019, eligible property owners in Fresno, Kern and San Joaquin counties can apply for incentives toward the installation of Level 2 and DC fast electric vehicle chargers.

Join project implementers from the Center for Sustainable Energy for our pre-launch webinar on December 4. During the presentation, team members will cover details about the incentive project, rebate eligibility and provide a walk-through of the application. There will also be a live Q&A session during which attendees will be able to ask panelists questions about the upcoming incentive project.
