Notice of Staff Report Availability and Public Comment Period Extension for proposed changes to the Nonresidential Data Registry in the 2022 California Energy Code

On December 2, 2020, staff held a public workshop to solicit input on proposed changes to the 2022 Energy Code. One topic discussed was the nonresidential data registry (NDR) provisions. These provisions specify collection of compliance documentation data by the California Energy Code (CEC).

The staff report related to the NDR is now available, and the CEC is providing stakeholders a two-week comment period for proposed changes related to the NDR proposal discussed in the staff report. All other comments related to other topics discussed in that workshop are due on the date specified in the published workshop notice.

- Extension of comment period for prior workshop notice: Notice of Staff Workshop December 2, 2020
 - The new comment period related to the nonresidential data registry is extended to Friday, March 12, 2021, at 5:00 p.m.
