Subject: Open Docket for 2025 Energy Code Pre-Rulemaking

The Building Standards Office requests to establish a new docket to support California's Building Energy Efficiency Standards effective March 3, 2022. This docket will be used to document public interaction regarding preliminary rulemaking activities for the 2025 Energy Code. This includes research and gathering of information necessary to develop the documents required to conduct a formal rulemaking proceeding. This is not a formal rulemaking docket. A separate formal rulemaking docket will be established to support development of the 2025 Energy Code.

The docket should be titled: 22-BSTD-01: 2025 Energy Code Pre-Rulemaking. Please add the buildingstandards CEC list server to this docket, send notification when opened, and include the following individuals on the internal distribution list:
