Many thanks Peter. This is a well-crafted note.

You probably saw today's article in the Bulletin of Atomic Scientists questioning Diablo's seismic safety: <https://thebulletin.org/2022/08/the-diablo-canyon-nuclear-plant-assessing-the-seismic-risks-of-extended-operation/>

It was written by Ed Lyman, an anti-nuclear analyst.

I believe that you and the other 3 seismic musketeers (Hardy, Wakefield and Wyllie) might want to rebut.

J.
