Qualified Applicants

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing to ask that you don't base eligibility for the IRA programs HOMES and HEEHRA on current energy bills because some people like myself purposely abstain from using my gas furnace because I can't afford the high bill I'll have to pay so I stay bundled up and use extra blankets to stay warm to save money. It wouldn't be equitable to only provide funds to those of us who are conserving energy to save money. This is important not to overlook and especially not used a measure to determine eligibility. Thank you, Susie Hernandez
