2025 Integrated Energy Policy Report (2025 IEPR)

Re: Electricity and Gas Demand Forecast

DOCKET NO. 25-IEPR-03

NOTICE OF REMOTE-ACCESS WORKSHOP

Notice of IEPR Commissioner Workshop on Energy Demand Forecast Load Modifier Scenario Updates

August 26, 2025
1:00 p.m. – 4:15 p.m.

Remote Access Only
via Zoom™ <https://zoom.us/>,
Meeting ID: 896 1494 3778 and Meeting passcode: 2025

The California Energy Commission (CEC) will host a remote-access workshop to review changes and updates to various 2025 Integrated Energy Policy Report (2025 IEPR) energy demand forecast load modifiers and the electricity rate forecast.

A load modifier is a category of electric power demand analyzed differently from the baseline general expectation of demand due to its unique growth patterns. Load modifiers discussed in this workshop will include behind-the-meter distributed generation and storage, additional achievable energy efficiency, additional achievable fuel substitution, and additional achievable transportation electrification.

This workshop is part of the 2025 IEPR proceeding. Chair David Hochschild is the CEC's lead commissioner for the 2025 IEPR with Vice Chair Siva Gunda as the associate commissioner.

The CEC aims to begin promptly at the start time posted, and the end time is an estimate based on the proposed agenda. The workshop may end sooner or later than the posted end time.

The public can participate consistent with the attendance instructions below.

Agenda

This workshop will discuss major updates to various energy demand load modifiers and the electricity rate forecast. Presentations will cover updates to these forecast components and a discussion of some of the related economic and policy drivers. Load modifiers discussed in this workshop will include behind-the-meter distributed generation and storage, additional achievable energy efficiency, additional achievable fuel substitution, and additional achievable transportation electrification.

The electricity rate forecast is a 15-year forecast of electricity rates (in dollars per kWh) across multiple sectors and investor-owned utilities presented in inflation-adjusted dollars.

A detailed meeting schedule will be posted before the workshop at 2025 IEPR Workshops, Notices, and Documents, <https://www.energy.ca.gov/data-reports/reports/integrated-energy-policy-report/2025-integrated-energy-policy-report/2025-iepr>.

Background

California Public Resources Code Section 25301 requires the CEC to prepare an IEPR every two years. The IEPR includes assessments and forecasts of energy industry supply, production, transportation, delivery and distribution, demand, and prices. The CEC develops these assessments and forecasts of the state's electricity and pipeline gas markets, including statewide and regional electricity and gas demand. The assessments and forecasts incorporate factors leading to future demand growth, such as changes in economic activity, population growth, urban development, industrial expansion and energy intensity, growth in different building types, and energy and environmental policies.
