Everyone understands that saving energy is good sense. There is no good sense in this. This is nothing less than a nanny state abridging freedoms. What is the penalty for civil disobedience? Do we freeze? Get arrested? Should we expect that the state won't seek to expand their powers beyond this? Why does that sound like such a fallacy? Give me a break. Next it will be our lights and televisions. I oppose this and will vote against anyone that institutes it. I am spreading the word about this email address and the contact information of everyone's elected representative. You pompous bastards need to step aside and let freedom ring. Do you hear? GET OUT OF PLACES WHERE YOU CAN RUIN AMERICA YOU SOCIALIST SWINE!!
