Subject: Controing my power in my home.

It may be a good thing to bring in the Russian President to run California.
Is their anything that you guys would like other than controlling all of the power in my home?
Like my checking account, maybe the control of my children.
Or maybe the control of how much gasoline that I am able to buy and use per week?

Think about what you are proposing!!!
You are really talking about taking all of our freedoms away so that you can control the power.
