Shall we all start goose-stepping and saying "Hiel Hitler" (or "Hiel Energy Commission"). There are plenty of other ways to reduce energy consumption. Invading my house and destorying my rights as an American citizen are not one of them. If any of you have 2 brain cells that actually function, you would know how evil this proposal is and drop it like a lead balloon right now!

You will only wind up creating a huge black market where people go to get around your Nazi tactics, You will also achieve the opposite of what you are hopping to - an increase in energy usage.

Come on people. Use that thing between you ears. Think for once in your lives. Say NO to Nazi-fornial!
