Gentlemen:

I am writing to oppose your idea to control the thermostats inside the homes of California citizens. We have enough "Big Brother" interference in this State and we don't need someone arbitrarily changing the thermostats in our homes.

I have lived here all my life (60 years) and everyday I find California becoming a state that makes me want to move out of. Unfortunately, I own my home and planned to live here through all of my retirement years if I can continue to afford it.

Sincerely,

Lucinda Seaton
