Jackalyne Pfannenstiel

Dear Jackalyne Pfannenstiel:

Here is a suggestion...Try to fix the problem rather than shove the problem on the backs of the TAX PAYING citizens of the State Of California.

It is obvious that a problem exists....power issues plague us each and every year. Yet the power companies pull stations off line for repairs right smack in the middle of the summer...when it is needed most. Why don't you guys belly up to the bar and institute new power plants?????? This conversation has gone on for decades and we are no further along than we were then. DON'T EVEN THINK ABOUT UTILITINZ YOUR BIG BROTHER TACTICS ON US...WE'RE NOT STUPID...JUST NOT AWARE OF YOUR INTERNAL TACTICS!! Get the job done correctly.

Sincerely,

R. Kuntz
